

Module 6: Monitoring for adaptive management

01

Overview

A monitoring system flexible enough to cope with the changing rhythm of implementation and with unexpected events is essential for a market systems programme. This module looks at some of the key processes and tools required for such a monitoring system, and how an organisational culture that promotes adaptive management can be fostered and sustained.

Printed from <https://beamexchange.org/guidance/monitoring-overview/module-6-monitoring-adaptive-management/overview/> on 04/26/2024 at 07:38