

Module 9. Designs, tools and techniques for monitoring

01

Overview

This module reviews methods and tools and their use for different purposes within the monitoring framework for market systems programmes. It therefore builds on the discussion on bringing different sources of information together to undertake the ‘outwards-in’ and ‘inwards-out’ analysis of how interventions are performing, as described in Module 5.

Printed from <https://beamexchange.org/guidance/monitoring-overview/module-9-designs-tools-and-techniques-monitoring/overview/> on 04/24/2024 at 06:30